

The image features a vibrant, abstract composition of overlapping circles in various colors including red, orange, teal, and brown. A large, white, flame-like shape is centrally placed, overlapping several of the circles. The background is a mix of these colors, some with textured or painterly effects. The Feast of Pentecost – June 9, 2019

From Fr. Jim . . .

Welcome to everyone! Welcome on this Great Feast of Pentecost! It is truly right and just that we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, the Lord's Paschal mystery on this, the last day of the Easter Season and the birthday of the Church of God. Each time we gather in prayer, at St. Leo's, we resemble the first Pentecost. I feel about this Feast like I do the Feast of the Epiphany. If we didn't bear the name St. Leo the Great, these two Feasts are so appropriate for being our parish feast days.

Look around. How evident are we of belonging to the Lord, of being filled with the Holy Spirit, of being sent to proclaim the Good news to all the nations, and of having different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit? Are there different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone? Are there different forms of service but the same Lord? Are we not the one body of Christ and doesn't this one body have many beautiful parts? Do we not speak in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God? Whether African, African – American, Guatemalan, Hispanic, Latino, European, European-American or American, in one Spirit, we were all baptized into one body. Whether black, white or brown, male or female, we were all given to drink of the one Spirit. Praise be to God and thanks be to God now and always!

It is incredible that I can write to you, today, just like St. Paul wrote to the Corinthian community and use his very words. How close is our celebration to the first celebration of Pentecost? But no matter how we celebrate, the message remains the same for all of us and for the entire universal church. We are blessed to be a microcosm of the universal church whenever we gather. May we discover this blessing and appreciate it more and more each time we come together in prayer and in service especially as our mission statement directs us with the spiritual and corporal works of mercy. Thanks for being and living as the church of God and professing your faith so well and so generously. Let the church all say: "Amen!"

Happy Pentecost, everyone and may you be on fire with the love of God for all of God's people and God's church!

Today we bless the Church windows and we give God thanks for the generosity and kindness of those who donated to have them repaired. We also pray for those in whose memory the repair of the windows may have been donated. A plaque with the names of the donors now hangs in the church vestibule. Your kindness and thoughtfulness have helped to save and repair our beautiful, unique windows. We welcome you to our liturgy and promise to keep you and your family in our prayers always. If you are not from our parish, please know that you are always welcome to join us for prayer anytime and stop in and say, "hello" or pay a visit to the church. You are always welcome here. Thank you all for your goodness and may God keep you in his care and bless you always.

"The Spirit transforms the hearts of the timid disciples from fearful, to bold men who bear witness to Jesus. His action frees hearts, impels service, guides people in new directions, and makes "the lukewarm thrill to new dreams. That is what it means to change hearts."
