

CLANCY'S CLICHES

Maybe I should worry more. Lack of worry might sometimes be perceived as apathy, but it's not. Why worry over spilt doggie snacks? If it happens, it happens. What's thought that will happen two days from now is not what's going to happen in two days from now—no matter how well-intentioned or how “perfectly” planned! Bowlieve-you-me! Worry is such a waste of the imagination ... and a waste of my precious nap time!

Don't get me doggone wrong. Being responsible and dedicated to our needs and that of others is important. Being the speed bump in the life is a very important job. Nope. Not putting any energy into fussing over spilt gravy. Why, can you remember what you were fussing about a year ago? See! They were only imaginative troubles back then, too! So don't spend time licking away the joy of today by trying to clean tomorrow's mud off your paws. Rain isn't even in the forecast!

My Easter Basket, empty now, of course!

In closing here's a quote from that famous person, Unknown Author, that says “People gather bundles of sticks to build bridges they never cross.” I say let's just toss those sticks and play catch!

AND...IT'S BASEBALL AND GARDEN SEASON!

Who's on first? I Don't Know. I don't even know all the new players this year. But I tossed a few ball jokes at you in my Cackles Column! And don't cry foul! Also featured are a few garden jokes. Gardening requires lots of water—perspiration. So I've traded that pastime in for listening to baseball and music. Plant ya now, dig ya later!

APRIL AHAH'S

- *April 2: PB&J Day. (And, for Luz— National Ferret Day!)
- *April 4: Red's opening day— Parade & Game.
- *April 7: National No Housework Day!
- *April 10: Siblings Day.
- *April 22: Earth Day.

Howlin's hootn'; Growlin's not gooten!
