FREESTORE FOODBANK

The Freestore Foodbank is the largest emergency food and services provider to children and families in Greater Cincinnati, Northern Kentucky and Southeast Indiana. The organization distributes more than 23 million meals annually to low-income individuals and families. The Freestore Foodbank supports more than 350 community partners in 20 counties throughout Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana, including including food kitchens, homeless shelters, emergency food pantries, program sites and social service centers. By providing emergency food distribution, the Freestore Foodbank responds to the issue of poverty and food insecurity in our community and provides an array of services (emergency clothing, housing services, SNAP assistance, Medicaid outreach and others) aimed at creating self-reliance. The Freestore Foodbank is a charter member of Feeding America.

Visit www.freestorefoodbank.org for more information.
