VOCATION VIEW

Thomas believed because he saw Jesus. What will it take for me to respond to God's Call?

LET US PRAY

God of everlasting mercy, who in the very recurrence of the paschal feast kindle the faith of the people you have made your own, increase, we pray, the grace you have bestowed, that all may grasp and rightly understand in what font they have been washed, by whose Spirit they have been reborn, by whose Blood they have been redeemed. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Second Sunday of Easter- April 11, 2021

From Fr. Jim . . .

Alleluia! Jesus Christ is Risen. His grace and peace be with you. How great it was to celebrate Holy Week and Easter with people gathered at church again as opposed to last year when we could only transmit it to your homes. Thanks to all who were able to celebrate with us in person and thanks to all who celebrated with us online. I am so grateful to our crew who faithfully transmits our service to your homes. Social distancing is still necessary, and we cannot fill our church to full capacity yet. The services of Holy Week are so central to our faith and their communal nature is paramount for a good and appropriate celebration. It is a blessing for all of us to be able to share our in-person celebrations with those who for any reason are unable to make it. But how great it will be when we can all return to church again and gather around the eucharistic table together. I deeply miss being with you. As we get closer and closer to herd immunity hope increases that we can open our churches completely to everyone for Mass and meetings. I long for that day.

A lot is happening while you are away! The Archdiocese of Cincinnati is again planning for the future of the church. This is mainly because the number of priests who are retiring and/or dying is greater than the number of active priests. We are unable to provide a pastor for all the parishes who need pastors. It is becoming increasingly difficult for a priest to be a pastor for more than one parish. Many of our parishes are restricted to maintaining the current structure at the expense of mission, service, and living the Gospel. The plan is called "Beacons of Light." It is designed to create parish vitality around a main operating principle or goal: there will be one pastor and one parish per region. The deans are coordinating this process. A professional company has been hired to assist us and facilitate the planning process in conjunction with the Archdiocesan Office of Parish Vitality. Phase One is currently in process. The Office of Parish Vitality has collected data from all the parishes and deaneries to evaluate the pairing of parishes within regions. Regions are now being called "parish families." St. Boniface and St. Leo are both in the Cathedral Deanery and it will become our task to plan to become a parish family together as one parish with one pastor. I call your attention to the insert in this week's bulletin, and it is posted on our parish web site. It is a summary of the entire planning process with all phases and a timeline showing when each phase begins and ends. Please familiarize yourself with this process and most importantly hold it in prayer. There is a website to keep you up to date on the process and it has suggestions for prayer. I will also keep you informed.

Pope Francis has declared this year: The Year of St. Joseph. St. Joseph pray for us now and always.

"Let us never tire of seeking the risen Christ who gives life in abundance to those who meet him. To find Christ means to discover peace in our hearts."
