31st Sunday of Ordinary Time – October 31, 2021

From Fr. Jim. . .

NOVEMBER 1, Feast of All Saints: Our Bishops dispense us from the obligation of attending Mass on Holy Days only when the Holy day falls on a Saturday or a Monday. This is done primarily out of courtesy to the growing difficulty for priests, musicians and the faithful to attend two major masses within twenty-four hours of each other and pray them well. When full schedules for both the Sunday and the Holy Days are kept then it is quite possible that priests and musicians could be attending six or more masses and it can put the faithful in a very uncomfortable position of having to choose which feast or mass they will attend if they are unable to go to two masses within twenty-four hours.

The Holy Days of Christmas and the Immaculate Conception are exceptions. The faithful are always expected to attend Mass on these days regardless of what day of the week they are to be celebrated. The church puts special emphasis and importance on these days because the Feast of the Immaculate Conception is the National Feast Day for our country and Christmas needs no explanation. When the obligation to attend mass is dispensed, the faithful are still invited to gather to celebrate Eucharist on that day and opportunities should be available for them to do so but there would be no need for a full schedule of masses.

The feast of All Saints is a wonderful time for the faithful to gather at the tables of Word and Eucharist to give thanks to God for the great sharing in the life of God that God offers to all of us. The life of God and our sharing in it, is made visible in the life of the saints both the official saints named and listed by the church throughout the ages and still being named and listed today and the unofficial saints of all the baptized who have been called to live their lives in holiness and grace through this world to the next one.

November 1 is a Monday this year, so the Obligation to attend Mass has been dispensed and there are no Masses on Monday at St. Leo. For those who want to attend Mass on this Holy Day, you are invited to St. Boniface. I will have Mass at 9:15am for the school, but there is plenty of room, feel free to join us. Fr. Pat McCloskey, OFM has Mass at 7:30am in English and Fr. Louis Gasparini has Mass at 7pm in Spanish. Everyone is welcome at St. Boniface!
