PRAY FOR OUR PARISH PARTNERS

In deepest gratitude for their most generous contributions of time, talent, and treasure to St. Leo's, this week please keep in prayer Montana Avenue Church of Nazarene.

You are invited to join our entire parish community to pray together virtually every day at Noon and 6:00pm.

YOUR PRAYERS ARE REQUESTED

VOCATION VIEW

We are like Martha. There is plenty to be anxious about, but only one thing is required of us. For five minutes today, be like Mary. Rest with Jesus; ask him what he requires of you.

LET US PRAY

Show favor, O Lord, to your servants and mercifully increase the gifts of your grace, that, made fervent in hope, faith and charity, they may be ever watchful in keeping your commands. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

16th Sunday of Ordinary Time – July 17, 2022

Insights and wisdom from Dewitt Jones, professional photographer for National Geographic Magazine: This man is a great photographer and many of his pictures for the magazine are award winning. Through the years, he has learned good principles for taking great pictures that he also has discovered can be applied to real life situations for planning, change and better living. The following are some of his thoughts: If we cannot change lenses on how we look at things, we are trapped. Reframe the problem into an opportunity. There is always more than one right answer. Find the right angle. Turn a win/lose into a win/learn situation. Do not be afraid of making mistakes. If patterns go too long without questions, they become prisons. Life presents us with windows of opportunities. Put yourself in the place of the most potential. Train your technique to see the extraordinary. Vision springs from really caring, really caring.

Can we apply his principles to the real-life situations that we face today as we wait for herd immunity from the coronavirus, enter the process “Beacons of Light” for the future of parish vitality with a shortage of priest leadership, and as we struggle with racism, violence, abuse, inequality, injustice and the losses of finances, jobs, and life? Where is the extraordinary (God) present to us? What questions do we need to ask? Are there windows of opportunities? Can we find our potential? Do we care enough to clearly see God’s vision and will for us right now? “Vision springs from really caring.”

We celebrated the Spirit of our unity last weekend at our annual parish Culture Fest. Our prayer and praise of God echoed through the streets not only with the Eucharistic sacrifice but all day and some of the night with different music groups playing, singing, and praying. The Theme is always “We are One as the Body of Christ.” And as always, we shared beautiful, delicious Latino food. A nice net profit was made this year that will support our parish operations. All my thanks and gratitude to our parish staff and Latino community for their generosity, time, talent, hard work and effort to express and show our unity in Christ and our love for God and all God’s people.
