23rd Sunday of Ordinary Time –September 4, 2022

My Brothers and Sisters in the Risen Lord,

It is the Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time, and today we are hearing a powerful and somewhat complex message in Luke about the cost of discipleship. In this Gospel, Jesus is traveling among a large group of people, who seem to be caught up with His words and deeds. He turns to them, and using strong words and two parables, he describes how one becomes a true follower of Christ. First, he indicates one must put love and devotion to Him above all else in life. Second, Jesus states a true disciple “must carry his own cross and come after me.” Next, to illustrate the cost of discipleship, Jesus relates two parables. The first is concerning a tower and how a builder must consider costs before he can construct it. The second parable is about a king who is considering whether he has enough troops to battle another. In both examples, Jesus is pointing out that one must carefully consider all circumstances when contemplating being a true disciple of Christ. Finally, Jesus offers these words to end His teaching: “In the same way, anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple.”

How do we interpret these words for us today? We must first ask ourselves, do I put Jesus first in my life? The answer to this question is difficult for many of us. Yes, we say we believe in Him and try to follow His teachings, yet as the old saying goes, “God is in the details.” With all the distractions in our lives, do we always give Him preeminence? St. John Vianney has said, “You either belong wholly to the world or wholly to God;” thus, we must carefully and dutifully construct a relationship with Him despite all the “noise” we face each day. We also must consider the cost of faith as described in these two parables. We may have enthusiasm for our faith, but do we have what it takes to carry it forth throughout our lives?

“The more we let God take us over, the more truly ourselves we become – because He made us. He invented us. He invented all the different people that you and I were intended to be... It is when I turn to Christ, when I give up myself to His personality, that I first begin to have a real personality of my own.” — C.S. Lewis

Yours in Christ, Father Rudy
