MISSION STATEMENT

St. Leo the Great Catholic Church is a diverse and welcoming Eucharistic Community living out our mission through liturgy, prayer, and outreach via the spiritual and corporal works of mercy.

We exist because the Lord has called us to receive and share the good news with all of God's people.

We behave as brothers and sisters in the Lord, as God's family.

It is a privilege to serve God's kingdom.

We embrace the cross in joy.

*We will succeed when we follow these strategic anchors:
grow a welcoming and diverse environment.*

*become pioneers of leadership for running a diverse parish.
invest and value collaborating partners.*

33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time –November 13, 2022

My Brothers and Sisters in the Risen Lord,

It is mid-November and next week, on the Feast of Christ the King, the Church will end its liturgical year and begin anew on the First Sunday of Advent. It is thus fitting to discuss what it means when things end and begin again in a different manner, and Luke's gospel today does just that.

Because it can sometimes be a troublesome thought, we as humans are reluctant to think about endings, especially those transformative ones when nothing seems to remain the same. We think if we avoid thoughts of such magnitude, they will be preventable, but alas, they never are. Ultimately, things end or change dramatically, and try as we might, we cannot avoid the effects of whatever remnants remain behind.

It is the Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time, and in Luke's Gospel today, Jesus is at the end of his earthly life and He gives us a description of the end of the world. Because the description is disturbing, with references to war, destruction, famine, and persecution, it might obscure His message of hope and promise: Stones may crumble, yet God remains. God is truly in control of everything, so we need not be afraid. When trouble comes, as it certainly will, there will be peace amid the storm if we can take refuge in the strength of our faith. In this Gospel, Jesus points out that beautiful structures created on earth by human hands, such as the Temple in Jerusalem, are easily destroyed, and pales to the beautiful structure God builds in each of us in the Body of Christ where our true, lasting joy can be found. Jesus calls us not to be deceived by the swirl of secular untruths/motivations that may cause doubt and denial in the Word of God. Furthermore, He reassures us that all will be well, grounded in the grace, hope and mercy of our Lord, Jesus Christ. ("...not a hair on your head will be destroyed."—Luke 21: 19) Finally, Jesus asks us not to be preoccupied by the tensions of the world and to focus on our personal, intimate relationship with God as the center of our lives, as we share in the Good News of our faith.

Consider the shortness of time, the length of eternity, and reflect how everything here below comes to an end and passes by. Of what use is it to lean upon that which cannot give support?—St. Gerard Majella

Yours in Christ,
Father Rudy
